Murphy PANELING

Murphy Paneling Adds the Finishing Touch to Any Room

Murphy Paneling Is More Than Just Another Pretty Face

The right paneling can highlight any room. It can make your room seem smaller or larger, cozy or formal, restful or "busy." It can compliment your furnishings or compete with them. It's really easy to get the effects you want with Murphy Paneling.

The wide variety of styles, textures and colors can add unique elegance and warmth to any room. With its grain and grooving accents, you can gain a three-dimensional depth and unlike painted walls or wallpaper, Murphy Paneling looks richly new for years, with minimal maintenance. It's also one of the easiest materials to install – whether you're new to do-it-yourself projects or a veteran. With Murphy Paneling and your imagination, you can turn an everyday room into a showplace.

Murphy has the panel for you

Murphy Real Wood Paneling

Real wood paneling from Murphy Plywood has a warmth and beauty that is at home in traditional or contemporary interiors. Our panels are available in many species noted for their richness in color and beauty.

We also offer a variety of species and face patterns ranging from wide planks to beaded and V-grooves. All are available in 48"x96" panels finished or unfinished. Surfaces can be Permaguard UV top-coated, which dramatically saves you time while virtually eliminating emissions. The coating also provides a durable clear finish.

Remember, when ordering real wood paneling, grain patterns vary from panel to panel producing visually different effects. The photos in this brochure represent the popular species and groove patterns available from Murphy.
